

APPRENT - Refining HE apprenticeships with enterprises in Europe

DEFINITION OF HIGHER EDUCATION (HE) APPRENTICESHIP

- ❖ Learning alternates between a workplace and an education centre
- ❖ Mentoring is a strong aspect preserved by the employer and the HEI
- ❖ The programme is part of a formal or continuing education training
- ❖ Successful learners receive a recognised certificate
- ❖ The training involves signing a contract or formal agreement by the student (apprentice), the employer and the HEI
- ❖ The apprentices receive remuneration in the form of wage or similar

APPRENT - The high youth unemployment and the shortage of skills are challenges for European economies. ApprEnt intends to support collaborative structures for a more dynamic and efficient University-Business cooperation and (b) offer training and tools to mentors so they can ensure student's acquisition of skills requested by the labour market
